- Small businesses

+ non-voting coastal and split-basin liaisons

? additional voting, if necessary, to ensure adequate representation

RFPG membership terminology

“position” (aka seat)

Attributes:

- ‘interest’ category
- voting/non-voting
- individual or ex officio
- liaison

“member” = individual who occupies that position/seat

Initial RFPG membership

VOTING

- The board designated 166 of the possible 177 initial voting members
- Positions for which the EA did not designate a member will be filled by the RFPG after it convenes and begins operating
- Each group must maintain 12 voting members

NON-VOTING

- Each group by statute will have 7 non-voting members from TWDB, TDA, GLO, TDEM, TCEQ, TSSWCB, and TPWD

Individual member responsibilities

- a) represent your interest group but consider all the region-wide stakeholders when making decisions
- b) regularly attending their RFBG meetings
- c) understand the state flood planning framework and process & consume information esp for group action
- d) consider stakeholder input
- e) participate in directing technical consultants
- f) make decisions and recommendations for the region
- g) ensure adoption of a regional flood plan by deadline

General RFPG Responsibilities

- Follow flood planning statute and rules and TOMA
- Adopt and follow bylaws that govern how each RFPG conducts its business.
- Designate additional representatives, if necessary, to ensure adequate representation from the interests in the region
- Designate a political subdivision to act on your behalf
- Hold public meetings in accordance with notice requirements and in a transparent manner
- Select and direct a technical consultant(s).
- Maintain a website for making notices, materials, and other information available to the public.
